Presidential Election Results

First numbers will be available shortly after 8:00 pm

MARTINEZ - The first results report will be released shortly after at 8:00 pm on election night, November 3, and posted to the Elections Division website www.cocovote.us immediately afterward. The initial posted results will be Vote by Mail ballots that are returned through Monday, November 2.

The second report, with results from the polls, will be issued at 9:30 pm with subsequent updates approximately every half hour until all precincts have reported. The final unofficial election night report is expected to be issued by 1:00 am.

The first interim report will be posted by 5:00 pm on Friday, November 6 and will contain results from Vote by Mail ballots received on and after Election Day. If needed, the second interim report will be posted by 5:00 pm on Tuesday, November 10. Additional results will be posted each Friday afternoon up to certification which is expected to be November 30. All results remain unofficial until certification.

The availability of updated reports will be communicated via Twitter and Facebook. Changes to the reporting schedule, if any, will also be communicated on these social media sites.
